  - Planning Section Chief
  - Operations Section Chief

- Select the TRUE statement:
  - Informal communication is prohibited within the Incident Command System
  - Formal communication is used in reporting progress of assigned tasks
  - Informal communication is the preferred method for communicating resource needs
  - Formal communication requires the use of written reports to document all interactions

- Resources within the Staging Areas:
  - Are managed by the Logistics Section
  - Include out-of-service resources that are being made ready for deployment
  - Include those being made ready for demobilization and return to their jurisdictions
  - Are awaiting operational assignment

- Branches within the ICS organization can be established:
  - Along agency jurisdictional lines
  - Within Groups to organize resources
  - Under the supervision of a Leader
  - Geographically or functionally

- Chris Smith is the Situation Unit Leader. No Planning Section Chief is assigned. Who does Chris Smith report to?
  - Operations Section Chief
  - No Direct Supervisor
  - Incident Commander
  - Public Information Officer

- Representatives from Assisting or Cooperating Agencies and Organizations coordinate through:
  - Liaison Officer
  - Public Information Officer
  - Logistics Section Chief
  - Operations Section Chief

- Typing resources allows managers to make better resource ordering decisions by:
  - Describing the size, capability, and staffing qualifications of a specific resource
  - Linking resources needed to execute typical response and recovery activities
  - Providing detailed information about the best sources for procuring a needed resource
  - Indicating how the resource can be used when deployed at the incident site

- These levels of the ICS organization may have Deputy positions:

Branch
Incident Commander
And _____

  - Staging Area
  - Division
  - Section
  - Group

- An individual assuming the role of the Deputy Incident Commander must:
  - Be a representative of the jurisdiction at the incident
